Overview

Vivian is a paralegal in the Estate Planning & Estate Settlement practice. She has experience in estate planning, estate settlement, trust administration, and related areas of law. She joined Reid and Riege, P.C. in May 2026, bringing with her a strong foundation in the practical and procedural aspects of probate and estate work.

In her role, Vivian is responsible for preparing and coordinating documents throughout the estate administration process, from initial probate filings to final distribution. Vivian approaches her work with creativity, dedication, and a keen attention to detail, consistently providing high-quality legal services grounded in professionalism and integrity.
