Overview

Ingi represents clients in the areas of estate planning, probate, trust administration, and estate settlement. She provides sensitive and attentive service to clients of all ages and professions in identifying their estate planning needs.

Ingi creates individually tailored estate plans designed for multiple purposes: lifetime asset management; health care and financial decision-making in the event of incapacity; lifetime gift and asset distributions; protection of assets for blended families; management and control of assets for young, spendthrift, or special needs beneficiaries; guardianship of minors; charitable giving; use of federal and state estate, gift, and generation skipping transfer tax exemptions; and probate avoidance. She also counsels executors, trustees, and beneficiaries in estate and trust administration and in all probate court matters.
