Overview

Laureen is a seasoned paralegal in the firm's Business Services and Commercial Real Estate practices, where she plays a key role in supporting attorneys across a wide range of corporate transactions and real estate matters. With more than 35 years of experience in the legal industry-including a tenure at Reid and Riege that began in 1985-she brings deep institutional knowledge and a steady, reliable presence to every engagement. Her work encompasses the preparation of entity formation, dissolution, and foreign qualification documents, as well as the management of Secretary of State filings, closing documentation, and title and lien searches. Known for her meticulous attention to detail and strong organizational skills, Laureen helps streamline complex transactions and ensure a smooth, efficient process for clients and attorneys alike. She is a collaborative team player and a trusted resource within the firm, frequently mentoring junior staff and sharing her knowledge to support team success.

In her client-facing role, Laureen is valued for her responsiveness, professionalism, and ability to communicate clearly and effectively, helping keep matters moving forward and clients well informed at every stage.
