

Outside General Counsel Services

Attorneys

Amy B. de Lannoy

Adam Carter Rose

As general counsel to many of our clients, we act as a trusted advisor and legal resource to satisfy the full range of business, regulatory, transactional, and litigation needs that commonly arise for our health and human services clients. We find that clients who entrust us with the full scope of their legal needs have been pleased with the results, and consequently, these relationships have spanned decades.