

Physician & Facility Licensure Matters

Attorneys

Amy B. de Lannoy

Paul Palma

Adam Carter Rose

We counsel healthcare provider clients and represent them with respect to sensitive licensure and credentialing matters. Due to the "domino effect" that often accompanies adverse settlements of licensing, employment, or privileging matters, it is important for providers to retain experienced counsel who can assess these collateral effects and provide appropriate guidance throughout the process.