Hartford, CT - September 18th, 2025 - Reid and Riege, P.C. is proud to announce that the firm has been selected to receive the Partners on the Rise Award from Lawyers for Children America (LFCA) at their annual Gala being held on Thursday, November 6th, 2025. This recognition highlights the firm's ongoing commitment to providing pro bono legal advocacy for children who have experienced abuse, neglect, or other significant challenges.

"We are honored to be recognized by Lawyers for Children America with the Partners on the Rise Award," said Thomas Kasper, President. "Supporting vulnerable children in our community is at the heart of our mission to use the law as a force for good."

Reid and Riege's commitment to LFCA runs deep. Attorney Brian O'Donnell, a Stockholder of the firm, serves on the organization's board of directors, helping to guide LFCA's mission and expand its reach. In addition, several attorneys across the firm actively partner with LFCA, volunteering their time and expertise to advocate on behalf of children in need.

The Partners on the Rise Award acknowledges organizations and individuals who demonstrate exceptional dedication to LFCA's mission and whose work has a meaningful impact on the lives of children. Reid and Riege is honored to stand alongside LFCA in its critical work to ensure every child has access to advocacy and justice.
